WITH LUNCH AT DAMON'S STEAKHOUSE

SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 2019

Celebrating 68 years in show biz, the Glendale Centre Theatre is quite possibly the best-kept secret in town! Although their opening night had an audience of just six, today the New Orleans style theatre house continues to sell out its 440 seats to theatre-goers of all ages! This great Saturday afternoon tour begins with lunch at Damon's Steakhouse. After lunch, you're off to the Glendale Centre Theatre for an afternoon performance of the hit musical comedy, "Church Basement Ladies." The church basement kitchen throughout much of America is often the heart and soul of any church. In "Church Basement Ladies" we meet the pastor, three main kitchen cooks and one daughter who run the kitchen and care for the congregation by preparing and serving the food. Like any great kitchen, problems are solved here as well. We see the four women handle a Lutefisk Dinner, a funeral, an Easter Fund Raiser, and, of course, a wedding. The stove off potential disasters, have fun, share and debate recipes, instruct the young, and keep the pastor on due course. This musical comedy based on recipes, food, and change in the church is funny, heart warming, and down to earth.
